

THE SUNDAY TIMES

travel

in Style

THE MODERN TRAVELLER'S GUIDE TO SEEING THE WORLD IN LUXURY

76 PAGES OF LUXURY ESCAPES

Your new wishlist

Destinations with double the style at half the price tag

Maldives

How to see 'real life'
on the fantasy islands

Business Class

Which airlines are really worth the blowout

In association with definitely

Dubai

Help us find a honeymoon!

One soon-to-be-married couple – and four travel experts. Each comes to the rescue of the panicking pair to concoct their perfect honeymoon, using the national average budget of £3,000...

1. BROWN + HUDSON

Luxury bespoke operator

INDIA: 'Few places are as seductive as India. Start in Delhi and explore the vibrant bazaars, before going on to Jaipur, Rajasthan, with its backdrop of majestic forts. Take an elephant safari to the foothills of the Aravali range before a final night in Agra, where you'll wake like royalty to sunrise over the Taj Mahal.'

One week from £1,495pp, B&B, including flights, chauffeur-driven car and private guides (020 3358 0110, www.brownandhudson.com).

2. THOMAS COOK

Britain's biggest travel agent

ITALY: 'Italy is one of the world's most romantic destinations, and with its old-school charm, the Tramontano Imperial Hotel in Sorrento is the best address, flaunting views of Mount Vesuvius and the bay of Naples. Take a day trip to the beautiful island of Capri, loved by the rich and famous.'

One week from £1,025pp, B&B, including flights and private transfers (0844 412 5970, www.thomascookstyle.com).

3. BLACK TOMATO

Cutting-edge travel experts

MOROCCO: 'Explore the Marrakech souk with your private guide, then learn to cook local cuisine in the beautiful Palmeraie gardens. Next it's off to the Atlas Mountains and spectacular views from majestic Kasbah Tamadot. End the trip with Saharan dune-cruising in a 4WD, sleeping in a tent beneath the twinkling stars.'

One week from £1,499pp, B&B, with flights and transfers (020 7426 9888, www.blacktomato.co.uk).

4. NOTA BENE

Members-only travel club

CORSICA: 'On this rugged and romantic island, the place to stay is the ravishing Domaine de Murtoli, one of Europe's hidden beachfront treasures. Take a boat to the La Maddalena islands, off Sardinia, for the perfect day out. Here the iridescent waters are among the most spectacular in the Med.'

One week from £1,900 for two, including flights from Gatwick. Memberships start at £3,000 (0845 313075, www.notabenetravel.com).

